

Whig and Courier.

Wheeler & Lynde, Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1887.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE WHIG AND COURIER IS LARGER

Than that of any other Daily in Maine, East or West.

Daily established 1854—Weekly 1815

Terms of Advertising

For one square, 3 times daily, $1.25

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

For each week's continuance, $1.00

horses or land is there, by supreme national law.

Another most pregnant change is wrought by this decision, in respect of the people.

No more Chawing.—One of the best comments on the result of the New Hampshire election is the following extract from the Concord Patriot of Wednesday.

Owing to the most contemptible conduct of the superintendent of the telegraph, we are unable to give this evening to full returns of the election.

But the decision, in this breadth, is in fact only a southern decision. No astute northern judge concurs in this view so far as we are informed Judge Nelson of N. Y. (who concurs in the holding of the poor negro Dred Scott, out of Court) dodges the most atrocious part of the decision by basing his concurrence upon the assumption that the U. S. Court is bound to agree with the Missouri Court in regard to what is Missouri law, and Judge Grier of Pa., represented as not agreeing in full with the five Southern Judges.

It is therefore a southern decision wholly, we say which assumes that the Constitution regards slaves entirely as property, and not as human beings at all—slavery as a national and not a local institution—and the whole African race as "HAVING NO RIGHTS WHICH WHITE MEN ARE BOUND TO REGARD."

Now what is there in the words of the Constitution itself to justify the assumption upon which all this is based? So far as we can see there is nothing at all. The Constitution does not even mention the word slave from beginning to end of the instrument, nor does it even refer to them as "property."

Art I Sec 2 "Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned, [according to numbers] which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons."

Sec 9 "The migration or importation of such persons as any of the States shall think proper to admit shall not be prohibited by Congress prior to the year 1808, but a tax on duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person."

Art 4 Sec 2 "No person held to service in labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein discharging, be delivered from such service, or labor, etc."

This is positively all that the Constitution says or even intimates about slaves—every word and yet we are told by the Southern Supreme Court, that the Constitution holds slaves to be only and wholly property (even when it provides for their being represented in Congress as persons)—and that thus holding them, they are, to all intents and purposes, property in every State.

Some of the consequences of this new doctrine, when judicially enforced, may be conjectured from the following considerations, advanced by the N. Y. Tribune.

I must trust that this decision is bad law, that it is based on false historical premises, and that it does not at all represent the legal or judicial opinion of the Nation, that it is merely a Southern sophism clothed with the dignity of the law of the Nation, and that it is an act on the part of the Southern Judiciary, an act on the part of the Southern Judiciary, an act on the part of the Southern Judiciary.

The wife of Mr. J. W. Adams of New York, died on Wednesday last. She was boarding at the National Hotel in Washington at the time of the epidemic supposed to be caused by the poisoned rats in the water tank. She is the second victim.

The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was from the drug store of Messrs. B. F. Bradbury & Co., which narrowly escaped a conflagration, although but small damage actually occurred.

Remarks of Mr. Crosby of Dexter upon the Death of Mr. Stone of Brewer.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

Remarks of Mr. Crosby of Dexter upon the Death of Mr. Stone of Brewer.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Mr. STONE.—It is with no ordinary feelings of emotion that I rise to second the resolutions introduced by my friend from Bangor.

On this occasion we cannot be otherwise than forcibly reminded of the mysterious providence of God. If the events of life did not constantly teach otherwise, we would be led to suppose that the end of man in this world would only happen after the full maturity of age, and that he would come to the grave, as fruitfully ripe falls to the ground, or like a shock of corn is gathered in its season.

Clarke's Female Pills.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke M.D.

This invaluable medicine is used in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

It is especially suited to be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are more likely to be injured by it at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

It is especially suited to be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are more likely to be injured by it at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

It is especially suited to be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are more likely to be injured by it at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

It is especially suited to be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are more likely to be injured by it at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

It is especially suited to be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first three months, as they are more likely to be injured by it at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.

WE are prepared to execute every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, neat and promptly.

in addition to our excellent assortment of Type, to which we are constantly making additions.

Guernsey Power Press, Adams Fast Job Press, Ruggles Rotary Card Press, Large and small Hand Presses, Paper Cutter, Card Cutter, etc.

WHEELER & LYNDE

Physician & Surgeon.

Office in Taylor's New Block near Kendu, Bangor, Me., 1887.

THE REASON

Why none of the ladies prefer Wheeler & Lynde's Sewing Machine to any other yet invented.

Sailing of Ocean Steamers.

California, &c.

MARRIED.

FURNITURE FOR SALE.

New England History.

The American Citizen.

ONLY ONE BOTTLE

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR OR LIVER REMEDY

IS REQUIRED FOR ALL

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

Sanford's Invigorator

TELEGRAPHIC

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Best Election—Republican

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

BAT

TREMONT MILLS

CHERRY
PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

Dorinda, Mass. 29th Dec. 1955
Dr. J. C. A. and I have to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the common cold is WATERBURY'S COLDS & CROUP SYRUP. (In constant use in my practice and my family for the last two years has shown it to possess superiority over all other remedies.) I have complains. PPH'S ENLIGHTENED

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq. of Uxbridge, W. writes: "I know your Paracetamol and it is my family ever-ready remedy and I believe it is the best for purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should say my twenty five dollars for a bottle than do without it any other medicine."

WATERBURY'S COLD & CROUP SYRUP

BRADY CONKLIN, M.
AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY CA., writes, 3d Jan 1

[illegible]

I will bring it to where I have it all arranged as I did before
I had dinner as usual I feel better
I lay back today and night and I suffer from her usual cold and I will wait until she

As a free-lance writer—I find my pen in the world and I can walk in and out as I please.

The necessity of Chemistry and Medicine has a long history. Literature to produce the best results per-greatest - which is the most valuable. The

[illegible]

In the first volume of the series, the author discusses the history of the series and the author's interest in the series. The author also discusses the history of the series and the author's interest in the series. The author also discusses the history of the series and the author's interest in the series.

[illegible]

State July 17 56

ANTAGONISTIC

To Prejudice and Empiricism

OLD DR. CULVERWELL'S
 Member of the Royal College of Surgeons (1871)
 (to sit out the Hall 1874) and 28 years
 Medical Referee &c.)
Radical Regenerator
 FOR SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
 In all its forms, as Nocturnal and Lurid Emissions,
 Nervous Irritability, Premature Discharge, Loss of Vigour, Impotency, and all the causes arising from early indulgence in This excellent Remedy, discovered by the w successful practitioner in his line for the last years is now for the first time offered to the affected in the fullest confidence of its extraordinary virtue. Its salutary effect is almost instan-taneous and it will doubtless at once supersede other means resorted to medical surgical or otherwise to arrest and to cure this awful disease. A single trial will convince the most sceptical a safe and perfect cure may now be had at the expense of a few dollars, which up to this date could not be procured for all the gold of the world. The heavy expenses incurred in bringing this act before the public could not be naked were its the same purpose not a sure guarantee that employment by one person would through recommendation, result in an eventual sale to many.

DR CULVERWELL'S admirable and entirely successful plan of treating these diseases in the un-est of humanity, recommended to physicians throughout the land, to whom every facility should be afforded for testing its wonderful efficacy in their private practice.

Full and plain directions for all the different varieties of the complaint accompany Dr. Cullen's REGENERATOR-REVEDED so as to enable every one to treat himself or herself successfully. Price $2 on the receipt of which it will be forwarded by mail free of postage, to any part of the world.

CO., Druggists and Apothecaries, 154 Grand
New York, Sole Agents for the United States
Canada. Nov 19 dswly

---

READING & HINGLEY

PEARSON & HINCKLEY,
Ship Chandlers
—AND—
Manufacturers of Cordage
Importers of Chain Cables, Anchors, Cast Iron and Bunting

Long Wharf and 2 Commercial-st.
BOSTON.

Boston, July 24, 1886
 6m vbp

BA

BY WHEELER

REPRINTED AT
DAILY WHIG & CO.
 WHEELER & CO.
 LONDON & FIVE DOLLARS
 WHEELER & CO. PROPRIETORS
 LONDON & FIVE DOLLARS

THE BANGOR COUR

[illegible]

BANK NOTE TABL

[illegible]

1.  $\frac{1}{2} \log \frac{1}{2}$

[illegible]

the bulk e + u k
layer at k H<sub>2</sub>

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

much Bank au

[illegible]

va Scotia Bill

Pink and Wax Candles, at